ICS class assignment 4 (Mapping CO4)

What are different types of Cyber Crime

→ Various institutes & organization have classified cybercrimes on various basis. There is no fixed or accurate classification of cybercrime as such. Classific-ation of cybercrime depends upon the point of view you are looking cybercrime from. Some of the broad classification levels that exist today are as following:-

Classification of Cybercrimes

1.Based on use of Computer	2. Based on Scope of Impact	3. Based on offender	4. Based on Motive ⓘ Computer as a tool	ⓘ Global	ⓘ Outsider	ⓘ Financial Gain
ⓘ Computer as a target	ⓘ Government	ⓘ Insider	ⓘ Disruption
	ⓘ Business		ⓘ For Fun
	ⓘ Individual		ⓘ Defamation
	ⓥ Property		ⓥ Fraudulent Activity
			ⓥ Cyber terrorism

Computer assisted crimes are the ones where computers are used as a tool to carry out the crime.

Computer targeted crimes are the ones where the computer itself was the victim of the attack & then was used to cause harm to its owners.

Global scope cyber crimes – More than 1 nation are impacted either directly or indirectly.

Government scope cyber crimes- Specifically targeted at the Government. This could be online anti-campaigns, Fraudulent activities during election times or defaming Government by spreading fake news.

Business scope cyber crimes- Targeted at organizations or specific businesses.

Individual scope cyber crimes – Targeted at individuals try to elicit the sensitive or confidential information such as banking account details, personal details.

Property scope cyber crimes – cybercrimes against property are the criminal acts against the digital property such as computers, domain names etc.